

School Belief Statement taken from “Whatever it Takes” by Richard Dufour

#4 – The Professional Learning Community School – PANHANDLE ISD

We believe that all students can and must learn at relatively high levels of achievement. We are confident that students can master challenging academic material with our support and help. We establish standards all students are expected to achieve, and we continue to work with them until they have done so.