Reading- We are reading the 3rd book in The Chronicles of Narnia series, The Horse and His Boy. The kids seem to be enjoying it, although it can be hard to follow sometimes. That's where good discussion comes in.

FYI- Realize that your child will not have a lot of grades in the grade book for the first half of the six weeks because most of our grades come at the end of the six weeks- journals, A.R. goals, etc. We'll have a few daily grades and a couple of test grades, and of course, conduct grades, but the rest will be taken late in the six weeks. Journals are due on Feb. 5th, and A.R. goal must be reached by Feb. 12th. Reading every night for 20 minutes or so should help your child reach that A.R. goal.

L.A.- Along with our regular classroom studies, we are preparing for Writing TAKS (Mar. 3rd). Right now everything is being done in class, but look for TAKS Prep Packets to start coming home in a few weeks. This will take your child about 15 minutes each night, Mon.-Thurs. to do.

Have A Great Week!

We will have a brief test over punctuation this week as well as a quiz over addressing envelopes. We will also begin our next narrative. I will hand out lists 15-16 this week, but there will be no test until next week.

We finished reading the novel The Outsiders. We will have a graded discussion over the novel on Tuesday. We will also watch the movie and compare the two. I have handed out the project sheet and we have discussed each available choice. As I mentioned last week, this is a large project. It will account for several grades this six weeks. We will do section A in class (this is a written assignment), but the rest of project is to be done outside of class. You can find a copy of this project as a downloadable page on my website.

AR will be due on Wednesday, February 17th.
